

321 Riverby Farm Road – Perry Family

36 08 33 N
76 41 58 W

Claude W. Perry

Feb. 12, 1887

Mar. 9, 1922

(The top part of Joseph Broom's Civil War marker that reads "Joseph Broom" was used as a footstone)

Eliza G. Perry

Wife of W. T. Perry

Born June 3, 1859

Married Nov. 14th 1883.

Died May 17, 1932

William T. Perry

Nov. 14, 1861

Apr. 10, 1943

John H. Perry

Born 1828

Died 1893

Elizabeth N. Perry

Born 1832

Died 1896

John Gibson Perry

Sept. 2, 1899

Mar. 30, 1986

Devoted husband

Lucile Elliott

Wife of

J. G. Perry

Feb. 21, 1898

Sept. 23, 1943

Her memory blessed.

Pauline Gardner

Wife of

J. G. Perry

Sept. 27 1898

Sept. 22, 1983

Devoted wife & mother

William B. Perry

Born 1830

Died 1882

Sallie A. Perry

Born 1832

Died 1899

J. B. Perry (carved in rock)

(Part of Joseph Broom's Civil War marker that reads "Co. A 48 N.C. Inf. C.S.A." was used as a footstone, J. B. Perry was not in this civil war unit)

12-20-07

By: Chris M Perry

Note: It is not known how the stone of Joseph Broom ended up in this cemetery. Joseph Broom is buried at Antioch United Methodist Church Cemetery, Matthews, Union County, NC and has a civil war marker on his grave.

Also found in barn on site was a marker for:

Selma E Gaskill

Born December 23, 1924

Died December 13, 1925

"From mother's arms to the arms of Jesus"

SEG